CITYWIDE/NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION ACTION GROUP ANNOUNCES 2019

SCHEDULE

January 22, 2019 Saginaw, MI – The City of Saginaw Citywide/Neighborhood Association Action Group (NAAG) Meetings for 2019 will kick off on Thursday, January 24 at 5pm at Thompson Middle School, 3201 Court Street. For 2019, the Citywide and NAAG meetings will be combined to allow for more quality content at the monthly meetings.

The Citywide/NAAG monthly meetings feature a formal presentation each month from the various Community Public Safety Departments (Police, Fire, and S.C.E.N.I.C.) to provide important updates on a wide range of issues concerning citizens such as neighborhood safety, First Aid/CPR, home security, emergency preparedness, internet scams—just to name a few.

The Citywide/NAAG meetings are open to the public and a great opportunity for Saginaw residents to get involved in their Neighborhood Association. After each formal presentation, there are informal discussions that provide residents with an opportunity to get to know the public safety officers and city staff that oversee their neighborhoods. These meetings also allow citizens to connect with other Saginaw residents and exchange ideas on how to deter crime, look out for one another, and keep their neighborhoods safe.
